

Restaurants: What Could Go Wrong?

A former employee filed an EEOC charge of discrimination alleging age discrimination and later filed a lawsuit alleging age discrimination and unpaid overtime. The parties settled for $72,500, with an additional $40,000 in defense costs.

A lawsuit was brought by a class of service workers against a restaurant franchise alleging the employees were not paid overtime wages in violation of state wage and hour laws. $100,000 was paid in defense of the claim.

A former employee brought claims of religious discrimination and hostile work environment. An independent investigation found some merit to hostile work claim. The claim settled for approximately $75,000.

A number of restaurant servers filed a collective action against the company and several affiliated restaurants for wage and hour violations. The matter was ultimately resolved without the company being required to pay any settlement monies since they were improperly named. However, it did cost approximately $33,000 to obtain the dismissal.

A former employee filed suit for constructive termination following alleged complaint of sexual harassment by the owner. The parties settled with a payment of $17,500, with an additional $10,700 in defense costs.

Find peace of mind with management liability coverage from a company that's rated "A+" (Superior) by AM Best.*

*AM Best rating affirmed December 3, 2021

Great American Insurance Group, 301 E Fourth Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202. Coverage is summarized. Refer to the actual policy for a full description of applicable terms, conditions, limits and exclusions. Coverage is underwritten by Great American Insurance Company, which is an authorized insurer in all fifty states and the District of Columbia. The Great American Insurance Group eagle logo and the word marks Great American® and Great American Insurance Group® are registered trademarks of Great American Insurance Company. © 2022 Great American Insurance Company. All rights reserved. 3823-ELD-8 (2/22)