Armored Car

The armored car industry moves many items in addition to cash and coin. They also move fine art, jewelry, gems, bullion, cell phones, computer chips, gift cards, lottery tickets, pharmaceuticals, securities, memorabilia and other such items.

The increased theft of these items has required them to be transported in a more secure environment.

Today's operators now serve a diverse client base, including banks and retail customers, ATM replenishments, check processing and offer safe offsite storage solutions for their customers.

With an industry that has changed so much over the years, operators need a company that understands the nature of their business. Great American has people with vast experience in the Global Cash in Transit business. We consider it our business to know our client's business.

Coverage Enhancements:

- Containers of Covered Property – Loss of/damage to a locked safe, vault, cash box, etc., caused by an actual or attempted theft.
- Premises Damage – Damage to the premises or exterior resulting from an actual or attempted theft.
- $10,000 Pollution Clean-Up – May be paid to extract pollutants if a vehicle spills gas, oil, etc., as a result of an actual or attempted theft. The customer has up to 90 days after the expiration of the policy period to report a loss.
- Loss Sustained During a Prior Policy Period – If the customer sustains a loss that would be covered under a previous policy, except that the time to collect under the old policy has expired, we will provide coverage for that loss, provided it would be a covered loss under the customer's current policy.
- 120 days to file a Proof of Loss form – Most Armored Car policies only grant 60 days to file a Proof of Loss form.
- Inclusion of Temporary Employees – Temporary employees are included in the definition of "employee" under our policy.
- No standard warranties – Our standard policy form does not include warranties that would void coverage.

Fine Art

Fine art collections can include paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints and more. These high-value items can be at risk of loss, theft or damage. Unfortunately, many individuals and organizations that deal with fine art may not realize their standard insurance policy isn't enough until it's too late.

Great American offers Fine Art insurance for museums, galleries, private collections, libraries and conservators. Our underwriting expertise allows us to provide customized coverage that responds to the unique needs of our clients and their belongings.

Mining

Mining is a diverse and complex industry. Great American Insurance Group has kept pace with the industry by adapting its insurance products to meet the requirements of the ever changing market around the globe.

Insuring the mining industry requires specialists with both technical and practical knowledge. It requires a company that understands the mining industry and can offer well thought-out quotes as well as provide customized service. Great American is the insurer of choice for many of the world's leading mining companies.

Exposures

Great American underwrites mining industry exposures, including above-ground open pit mines, underground mines, smelting and refining operations for metals used in a wide variety of alloys, chemicals and pigments used in many industries.

For Example:

- Platinum group metals used in the manufacturing of catalytic convertors.
- Gold, silver and platinum used in the manufacturing of many jewelry items.
- Copper used in building construction and many electronic industries.
- Gold used in electronic components.

Utilizing our experience, we fully evaluate the nature of the risk to provide our clients with the best and most competitive coverage available.

Precious Metals

Our team handles crime insurance for companies that have a high value of precious metal exposures. For example, businesses that use platinum, rhodium and palladium in the manufacturing process to make catalytic converters and companies that mine, refine and trade gold. We can assist you in the engineering of your transit and storage exposures.

Coverage and Limits of Liability:

- Broad coverage
- Only insurer willing to offer armored car policy limits up to $30 million
- Customized insurance plan to meet unique exposures and risk of armored car companies
- Reduce likelihood of loss by offering exceptional loss control and claims handling services
- Highly-trained staff is prompt and efficient at analyzing, adjusting and paying claims
