

Design Professional Newsletter

Meet our Design Professional Team

Millie Koppean is a Financial Products Claims Examiner at Great American. Prior to joining Great American this year, Millie served as senior claims counsel for a third-party claims administrator handling a variety of professional liability claims for Underwriters at Lloyd's of London and domestic carriers. She earned her law degree from The John Marshall Law School.

Millie lives in Northern Illinois. She was raised on a Sesquicentennial Family Farm which her family still operates today. She is actively involved in the family farming operations. Millie is also an avid golfer and recently had her first hole in one.