

NewDawn Security and Specialty Human Services

NewDawn Security is working with Specialty Human Services to offer savings on two impactful Safe School Service Options:

- Predator Prevention Certification
- Excellence in Safe School Operations (ESSO) Certification

As a division of Great American Insurance Group dedicated solely to social service organizations, Specialty Human Services understands the need for value-added risk management services to enhance the direct services provided by SHS insureds. Through this collaboration with NewDawn, SHS is confident that your school will experience enhanced safety and risk management, allowing you the peace of mind to focus on educating your students.

Specialty Human Services

Insuring those who improve our communities.

NewDawn Security, the Safe School Experts and innovators of the 26 Safe School Standards approach is proud to work with Great American Insurance Group's Specialty Human Services Division.

Why NewDawn Security?

NewDawn Security has a unique, hands-on approach to school safety that not only identifies risks but also reduces them. Additionally, NewDawn does not focus on one element of risk, such as an Active Shooter-only training, but approaches risk mitigation with its 26 Safe School Standards approach.

History of NewDawn

NewDawn Security was developed by a former school principal with input from both local and federal law enforcement, executive protection agents, school administrators and school safety experts. Their unique services focus on long-term relationships with schools that not only enhance safety, but also enhance the value of the school.

"NewDawn Security not only enhanced and maintained our school safety, but also helped us as parents provide a safer home."

–Danielle D., Safe School Committee Parent

Benefits for the School

NewDawn Security offers the following benefits to schools that use their services:

- Reduced discipline incidents
- Decrease in statistical chance of a violent act
- Additional safety and security professional development for staff
- Personal, on-site meetings
- Incident management monitoring system
- Weekly updates of national educational news
- Drop in risk of lawsuits
- An increase in parent, staff and community member satisfaction rate

"NewDawn's ESSO certification and Predator Prevention Program are innovative. They drive school safety initiatives toward a proactive approach, and provide the 'Best' possible safety and security standards in our schools."

–Police Chief Rick Smith
