

Workers' Compensation

Protecting drivers is even more important than protecting the vehicles they drive. Great American offers Workers' Compensation for the following segments:

For Fleet Owners

Fleet Owners who lease on to Motor Carriers often need to provide Workers' Compensation coverage for their employee drivers. When a Motor Carrier sponsors a Great American Occupational Accident program, Workers' Compensation for the Fleet Owners' drivers may be available.

For Motor Carriers

Motor Carriers sponsoring a Great American Occupational Accident and Contingent Liability program may be eligible to purchase Workers' Compensation coverage for their eligible employees.

For Owner-Operators

Some states require that all truck drivers, regardless of Owner-Operator status, be covered by Workers' Compensation. Great American offers coverage in those jurisdictions, when the Motor Carrier is sponsoring a Great American Occupational Accident program.

Great American's Trucking Division does not currently provide any monoline Workers' Compensation coverage.
